Ends Saturday, July 11th

STEELE, TAPLIN & COMPANY'S DAY Alteration

Continues with Unabated Force.

Although the basement was turned over to the contractor, A. L. Bragg, and his on men July 1st, the main floor will not be disturbed until the basement is completed. This may take until July 15 or 18. We will continue to do business in the main store until the last minute and then move what is left of the stock to the new basement, where we expect to be practically out of business for a tew weeks, but every working day until July 12, at least,

We shall continue to sell Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing from the three best makers in this country, at the unheard of price of

50 Cents on the Dollar

Staple lines of Black, Blue and Brown Worsteds, are the only goods barred. These and all Furnishings at 20 PER CENT OFF THE REGULAR PRICE. Don't neglect this chance of a lifetime.

Straw Hats at Half Price.

Steele, Taplin & Company,

St. Johnsbury, Vermont.

At Danville.

surth of July Celebration.

tration here passed off very iwn by Frank Adams' fine slowed by the president of F. Schneider, Rev. G. E. The Stephen D. Morse, and is thaty livde Smith of Hyde Park, representing the Patrons of was trimmed with evergreen of the us drawn by Clayton Far-Vest Danville, This was the Pythian Sisters, in a as, preceded and followed a latics on horseback. I. W. coresented by a fine float sown team, and carrying a ung ladies, who enlivened their songs. This was representatives of the has in full uniform, with layer. Dole and Currier ed by a float very attinctel m red and white and ant Dole. The Congregaschool were represented ther of the children in an corated floar drawn by H. Cass showed a in, on wheels. The Elm attention to their hospian table presided over by thes. The degree team of dimen, in uniform, made tive appearance, and were Woodward in his puny ated with symbols of the ame a long procession of th many local hits and Kittredge, with his cow nd drawing an express > mee was won by Durant III Durgin second; the oby Eugene Clough; Percy o the show of single res the first money was .... Morse: second money, us; third money, Fred Winn. of matched horses first awarded to Newell Kingsblen, and second money to of Walden E. A. Nutt er gave a very acceptable to ball game between Cabot upsic was won by Cabot by 2. The promenade and evening was largely atgether it proved a very much attention to the

The Kidneys

are weak, torpid, or stagnant, system suffers. Don't neglect time, but heed the warning of block, the bloated face, the sailow the prinary disorder, and begin

Hood's Sarsaparilla which was also the best and safest curative

Sables anown as Sarsatabs, 100 doses $1. Newton, Mass., are at Thurber's. liquid form or in chocolated pleasant day, particularly free from ac- Miss Della Rhodes of St. Johnsbury cidents and discords.

Death of Mrs. Preston.

Mrs. Fred J. Preston died at her home as was one of the principal in this village, Wednesday afternoon of exophtimimic gottre. Susan B. Wilson was in charge of Dr. Pache was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. hal, assisted by John Wil- | Charles Wilson and was born in Rochesher education in Cleveland, Ohio, where cently, she lived with her parents for several while at Phillips Academy. She was married to Fred J. Preston, Jan. 25. 1882. One son was born to them, Ira-Armstrong Preston of St. Johnsbury. She had been suffering from the disease which caused her death for several years but was confined to her bed only a couple of weeks. She was a member of Congregational church, uniting when Rev. C. W. Thompson was pastor, and for about 20 years has served the church most efficiently as organist. She was a talented musician and loved as a former resident of Danville. the service particularly since the memorial organ was installed, and her ability and power of expression added much to the enurch service. Not only in the church, but in all the musical affairs of the town, she was always ready to do her share. She was a member of the Christian Endenvor society and had been an officer in the Woman's Missionary society for many years, being vice sister, Mrs. C. P. Fellows, president at the time of her death. She was also an active worker in the Village Improvement Association, one of the trustees of the Ladies' Library Association, and a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, in which she had held the highest office. She was a woman of expenditure of the state permanent road rare attainments, a great reader, a keen money. It is to be used in two places, observer, and of a bright and cheerful in Williams' swamp on the Peacham disposition. These qualities made her a road, and opposite the church at West most enjoyable friend. She is survived by her husband and son, an aged mother, a sister, Miss Flora Wilson, and a was held at the house Friday atternoon, registered at the Elm House, July 2. Preston's request Mrs. J. E. Tinker sang visited Danville. "Crossing the bar." There was a profusion of floral tributes from the societies of which she was a member and from individuals. Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Preston, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Page, Mr. and daughter Sarah, Morris Goodwin

Mrs. Aaron Wesson and daughter dancing. Virginia of St. Albans are visiting at The young people of the Christian En- friends in Lyndon. Peter Wesson's. Mr. Wesson was here deavor society will have for their topic for the fourth, returning home Monday Sunday evening the very interesting sub- through having.

Danville.

Mrs. Jason Cady of St. Johnsbury; Mr.

Glen and Doris Crane, youngest chil-dren of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Crane, are ill. Mrs. J. C. Neible of New Y rk city is at her home here. The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will hold their social Wednesday afternoon and evening, Tuly 15. Mr. and Mrs. Ethan E. Carr of St. hasbury visited Mrs. E. C. Pierce over

Mrs. Alice Daverson of North Danville spent last week at Frank D. Stocker's. Mr. and Mrs. M. U. Adams of West horn, Saturday and Sunday.

W. H. Nutting and son Ray left for California Monday afternoon, where they will join Mrs. Nutting.

Mrs. C. E. Cook of Boston is visiting her uncie, Albert L. Ingalis. Hiram Smith and daughter Vera of

G. W. Kingsbury, who has been visityears. She came to Danville to live ing at J. W. Gillis' for several days, reabout 33 years ago and taught for a turned to his home in Fitchburg, Mass. Tuesday. Miss Clara Gillis accompanied him and will remain for several weeks. Mrs. Elwin Kingsbury is stopping with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Sturdevant, and Mr. Kingsbury was here over Sunday. Miss Sarah Colby went to Wolcott, Saturday, to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Preston Pinney, who was brought there from Chicago for burial. Mrs. Pinney will be remembered

Miss Hattie Choute is spending the week at St. Albans, the guest of Mrs. Ida Babbitt,

Mrs. Agusta Colby and Miss Neille Colby went tot Fitchburg, Mass., Tuesday, where they will visit Isaac N. Colby. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walch of Boston and little Allen Anderson are visiting her

Miss Ruth Kintner, who has been visiting at Jennings Sturdevant's, hus returned to Fittsburg, Pa-

G. O. Ford, county road commissioner. was in town Monday, and planned the

C. G. Mulliken, of Cumberland, Md., Miss Josephine P. Mulliken, of Waterbrother, Charles H. Wilson. The funeral ford, and Mrs. John G. Foster, Barnet, Rev. J. F. Schneider officiating. At Mrs. has been 50 years since Mr. Mulliken has

> Frank Barber, who has been visiting his brother, H. E. Barber, has returned to Concord, N. H.

Miss Lettie Morse of Waltham, Mass., is spending her vacation with her and Mrs. Sidney Page, French Carrick parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Morse. The regular meeting of the Grange will be held Tuesday evening, July 14. It and Mrs. Herbert Brown of Walden and will be "gentlemen's night." music and a farce. Ice cream will be served and there will be opportunity for > tend these services. Mrs. Evelyn Southworth of West Fairlee and Mrs. C. A. Barnes and Mrs. S. Huse of Waterbury are guests at Rev. G. W. Douglass' this week.

ject of "character and courtesy." Summer guests are cordially invited to at-

Bert Heath from Bellows Falls is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Heath.

Harold Gammel of East Barnet is visiting at Perley Ayer's. Mrs. James Borland of East Craftsbury has been visiting at Aaron Smith's.

Miss Mabel Barlow of Waitham,

EAST CABOT.

was the guest of Miss Blanche Harts Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hooker of St. lin Bell. Johnsbury were at R. S. Barr's over The Misses Marshall of Lancaster vis- parents at Bloomfield, for a little more parents, Rev. and Mrs. F. I. Sargent. Sunday.

Several from here attended the Fourth of July celebration at Danville.

Mrs. O. E. Bundy of Sutton Station is with relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Flora Cobb and Miss Flora Paige mest Moore. The Danville ter, N. Y., May 14, 1859. She received Wolcott visited relatives in town re-of-Montpelier neguests at W. I. Abbott's. John Dunn of Plainfield was in town over Sunday.

Miss Elva Walbridge is with her aunt, Mrs. S. E. Houghton, for the present. Harley Hanscom and Albert Penke of Sutton were in town a few days last do his haying. Mr. and Mrs. Gauthier and two children and Miss Julia Tatt, who have been at N. L. Wilson's the past week, returned to their home in Barre the hist of

Jessie Wilson and daughter of Hardwick have been at Mark Hall's for a few

SOUTH WHEELOCK.

Mrs. Will Hutchinson and two sons of Lyndon Center spent last week with her aunt, Mrs. M. Loumis.

Lyle Parker and family of Kirby visitd at Frank Pierce's, Wednesday and Mrs. Jane Clement of Lyndon is stopping at I. P. Rock's. Frank Pierce sold a fine span of gray. norses to parties in East Stelomsbury last week. Frice $550. Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Goss of St. Johnsoury were in town the Fourth.

Miss Nora Buckley is visiting in Bar-G. L. Gerry has sold his Thomas farm to Frank Pierce, consideration $400. Miss Kathleen McLean huished a very successful term of school at the Mountain, Friday. Scholars not having any marks were Helen Gonyo, Emmett Foy, and George Weed. The children all wish her back again in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Keough are visiting in Stowe. Miss Helen Wooley of Hardwick is spending a few weeks with her father. John Pierce and Ralph Peak had the isfortune to get hadly burned with fire-Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Stanton of North | gram will be a varied one and include | crackers the Fourth by lighting a whole Mrs. Charles McGovern and daughter

Agnes spent Saturday and Sunday with Wallace Smith is helping J. P. Rock

LUNENBURG.

Miss Carolyn Enright of Keene is spending her vacation with her parents groom's parents.

Mrs. Enright goes this week to Burlington for a few days to attend a meeting of school superintendents.

The ladies belonging to the Bible class excellent sermon from Luke 8:18. gave their teacher, Mrs. Enright, a surprise party one evening last week. A Dartmouth College, has been secured to purse of money was presented her by Mrs. Howard and light refreshments were served.

James Bell and wife and Mr. and Mrs. course on "Christ the Light of the Mass., is visiting her uncle, W. E. Smith. Hibbard of Lancaster spent Saturday World," last Sunday.

last week.

Mrs. Breitling returned from Boston the middle of last week.

Prof. Andrus entertained his class of high school pupils Tuesday evening at his boarding place at Mrs. Morgan's, The evening was much enjoyed by all

During the thunder storm Sunday afternoon lightning struck the buildings belonging to Waiter Silsby on the Pond Hill road, which were burned to the ground. The buildings consisted of his lwelling house, two barns containing a large amount of pressed hay, and the boarding house. The loss is a heavy one and the family have the sincere sym-George Morris is helping Robert Barr - pathy of all the townspeople. The house and barns were in first-class condition, having recently been put in thorough

WALDEN.

Mrs. George Marshall is entertaining

two of her sisters from New York. Mr. and Mrs. George Parrington of West Rumney, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Earrington from West Danville spent Friday at J. W. Thurston's. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kittredge and children have been visiting at A. A. Scott's.

at H. L. Rogers .. Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Meader have been

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart and Mr. and Mrs. Lajoy of Hardwick spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. Milligan.

Mrs. Fred Kingsbury and son are visiting at Charles Cox's. The Ladies' Aid meets with Mrs.

Saulters Thursday afternoon.

LOWER WATERFORD. Remics-Morton.

There was a very pretty wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Remick, when their son, Willie Clyde, was St. Johnsbury. united in marriage to Mabel Gertrude Morton of Concord. The ceremony was baying, and find the hay crop to be very solemnized at high noon on Wednesday, July 1, by Rev. E. E. Grant of St. Johnsbury East, the single ring service being used. The house was decorated with ferns, daises and roses. The bride was prettily attired in white silk muslin and was attended by her sister. Blanche Morton, while the best man was the groom's voungest brother, Carl C. Remick. A bountiful dinner was served to all. Both young people have many friends to wish them a long and prosperous married life. After a short trip they will be "at home" to their friends at the "Tip Top Farm," the home of the

GRANBY.

Rev. Benjamin A. Dean of Vershire supplied the pulpit fune 28. He preached an

Rev. W. F. English, a graduate of preach for three months commencing July 5. His home is in East Windsor. Conn. He gave a very interesting dis-han a week, returned home Friday.

Sugg visited at Oscar Willson's in Lunen- Goss of St. Johnsbury visited at G. E. burg, niv 4.

Lambert Smith met with a bad accident last week. While returning from | daughter of Woodsville visited at their his work above Stevens' Mills on a hand father's, S. G. Cree's last week. car, the rails were wet from the rain and juring all of the six men on the car. One | man's. bone was cracked in his wrist, and the ligaments were torn off, but he is doing as well as could be expected.

EAST CONCORD.

Mrs. H. A. Bartlett of St. Johnsbury was a guest of Mrs. W. R. Smith last

Mrs. Mary Keyes of Manchester is spending a few weeks with her daughter. Mrs. Ira Grant. Mr. Woods of St. Johnsbury house," that belonged to the late C. D. game of base ball was played between Root's estate, and will move here some time this week.

Mrs. Alice Smith spent a part of last week with friends in St. Johnsbury and given by the children. In the evening a

During the thunder shower Sunday afternoon lightning struck a tree in Mrs. Marion Higgins yard in Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. John King received quite a John Loyd Rogers of Barre is visiting shock while in the barn where they had gan, last week, driven for shelter.

The celebration on the Fourth proved spending a week with friends at North a grand success in every way and was been absent three years, and Perry enjoyed by a large number. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. obn Folsom served meals to nearly 400 people. The program was a good one and well carried out. The dance in Music Hall was greatly enjoyed both afternoon and evening, and largely patronized. Music was furnished by Mooney's orchestra of Concord.

days.

Mrs. Agnes Crosby, who has spent the past few weeks with her sister, Mrs. W. R. Smith, has returned to her home in Most of the farmers have commenced light, due to dry weather. Mrs. Lizzie Weir was called to Lisbon last week by the critical illness of Mr.

ackman.

part of last week with her son, George Keniston. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Higgins of St. ohnsbury were guests of Mr. and Mrs. ohn McDonald, Friday and Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brood and son, Harry Carr, Georgianna Craig and Mr. and Mrs. M.

attend the celebration on July 4. Mrs. Nelson Wallace is a guest of Mrs. Fred Rogers.

N. Hoyt of St. Johnsbury were here to

Mr. and Mrs. John Noves and daughter | present until after having. of Bath, N. H., spent a part of last week with her mother, Mrs. Susan Morrill.

WHEELOCK.

Mr. Welfoot of St. Johnsbury visited his step-son, W. P. Dean, last week. visiting at George Bean's.

with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank- Mrs. S. G. Willson, who has been visit Mr. and Mrs. Leon Merrill of White ing her sister at Newport, and her River unction are visiting Mrs. Merrill's

> Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ball and son Dora Willson, Edna Wells and Philip East Haven, also Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Goss' last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Cree and Miss Eva Lockhart and little brother the car was thrown from the track, in- from Newport are visiting at Fred Hoff-

Mrs. Sue Davis and two children from Lyndonville visited her father, George Burber, last week.

The Fourth passed off very quietly. A good company gathered on the common and a bountiful pienic dinner was served. In the afternoon the children entertained them with the flag drill, which was very good, also with speaking and reading. Speeches were made by Rev. Mr. Kelley of Sheffield, and Rev. has Mr. Sargent of Wheelock, which were bought the house known as the "vellow very appropriate. At three o'clock a Greensboro and Sheffield the latter winning the game. Great credit is due Rev. Mr. Kelley for the fine flag drill

> E. Goss in front of the store, which were very much empayed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Harley Paige and son of Barton visited her mother, Mrs. Milli-fine display of fireworks was given by G.

WEST DANVILLE.

Arthur Flint from Montana, who has Flint from Tengsboro, Mass., are visiting at their father's, O. B. Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brickett from Boston are making his parents and relatives a visit for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lane from St. ohnsbury visited here Sunday.

Harvey Carrick from Canton, Mass. Miss Florence Hood of Jefferson is and his sister, Sarah, from St. Johnsbury, visiting Mrs. J. C. McDonald for a few spent Sunday at the old homestead, Mrs. Mary Clifford's.

> Mr. and Mrs. George W. Farrington from West Rumney, N. H., are visiting relatives and friends about here and all are glad to see them.

> William H. McFarland has completed his contract on the N. E. O. P. Hall and they now have a very nice reception coom and hall. They will repair more later and have a kitchen and dining

The Fourth brought a larger crowd Mrs. Emily Keniston's health is so far around the lake than ever before and the improved as to enable her to spend a great need is for more cottages. Elsie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Rodgers, died Thursday, aged eight months. They have the sympathy of the whole community.

School closed Friday and as usual it was a very successful term. Mrs. Carrie Young, teacher in the grammar grade, left Monday for Plymouth, to attend for eight weeks a teachers' school. Mrs. Young and Miss Blake will return to teach the fall term.

The saw mill is shut down for the George LaBrac has gone to Hardwick to work with Daniells' big team. The county road commissioner was in the village Monday with Selectman Gile to lay out some permanent work from Hollis Way's place to the foot of the hill Floyd Ingerson of Lyndon Center is by E. N. Dunbar's, a much needed improvement.